

Information prior to contracting

By signing the front of the present insurance application form, the Policyholder acknowledges that he or she has been informed, on the date of the present, of the information indicated below pursuant to the provisions contained in article 96 of Law 20 dated July 14th, 2015, and in article 122 and 126 of the Regulations developing the same, that he or she has received, at his or her email address stipulated on the insurance application form, or in hard copy if no address is furnished, the additional Prior Information Note for the product referred to in the application form. SANITAS is under no obligation whatsoever as a result of this application, and reserves the right to accept or reject it for the purposes of taking out the policy.

APPLICABLE LEGISLATION.

The Insurance Contract Act (Law 50 dated October 8th, 1980), the Insurers and Reinsurers (Organization, Oversight and Solvency) Act (Law 20 dated July 14th, 2015), and the Regulations developing the same (Royal Decree 1,060 dated November 20th, 2015).

INSURER.

SANITAS, SOCIEDAD ANÓNIMA DE SEGUROS, has its registered office at Calle Ribera del Loira 52 (28042 Madrid, Spain) and tax ID no A-28037042. The supervision and monitoring of its activities corresponds to the Directorate General for Insurance and Pension Funds at the Ministry of the Economy and Competitiveness. Through its website, SANITAS will publish the statutory reports on its financial situation and solvency status within the terms foreseen in current legislation.

ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS. NOTIFICATIONS.

If and when this insurance application is accepted, SANITAS will send an email to the Policyholder at the address provided by the latter on this application form. This email will feature a link allowing the Policyholder to register on the website and choose a Security Password.

Once he/she has obtained the password, the Policyholder must access www.sanitas.es, where the General and Particular Terms and Conditions of his/her policy are available; these must be accepted using the code sent to the mobile phone number provided in this form. The use of the Password code will be legally equivalent, for all purposes, to the Policyholder's handwritten signature. Sanitas may deny the insured cover if the policyholder does not accept the policy terms and conditions.

The Policyholder authorizes SANITAS to record any telephone communications and the computing and remote electronic records generated by accessing the SANITAS service. Such recordings and records may be used as evidence in any legal or arbitration proceedings which might arise between the two parties.

The Policyholder authorizes SANITAS to use his/her mobile telephone number and email address to send him/her any notifications, communications and information related to his/her policy by electronic means, provided current legislation so allows. The Policyholder accepts that any notification sent by SANITAS to the physical or email address or telephone number provided by the Policyholder when the application for insurance is made will be fully valid and effective until such time as a change in these details are notified to SANITAS.

The Policyholder will pass on the terms and conditions agreed and indicated in the previous paragraphs to any Insured parties in the policy who might wish to register and obtain their own security password, and hereby accepts the full legal validity of said terms and conditions, both on his/her own behalf and on behalf of the aforementioned Insured parties.

COMPLAINTS HANDLING BODIES.

In the event of any complaint regarding the insurance contract, the Policyholder, Insured, beneficiary, harmed third party or successor in rights of any of the above must address their complaint for resolution:

- To the Complaints Handling Department of SANITAS, by means of a signed letter (with the claimant's National Identification Document or a document accrediting their identity) addressed to the Insurer at Calle Ribera del Loira 52, 28042 Madrid or sent to fax number (+34) 915 852 468 or by email to the address reclamaciones@sanitas.es. We shall acknowledge receipt in writing and shall issue a formal reasoned resolution in writing within the maximum legal term of two months from the date of submission of the complaint.
- Once the Insurer's internal complaints process has been exhausted, or if the client does not accept the resolution reached, it will be possible to lodge a complaint in writing, facilitating the claimant's National Identification Document or a document accrediting their identity before the Directorate General for Insurance and Pension Funds. For this purpose, the claimant must show that the term stipulated for the resolution of the claim has elapsed or that consideration of the claim has been refused or the claim submitted has been rejected.
- Please be informed that SANITAS is not attached to any consumer rights board, without prejudice to the Insured's right to follow the administrative and legal proceedings specified in the complaints procedure set down in the General Terms and Conditions of their policy.

- In any case, it will be possible to resort to the competent Courts, which shall be those corresponding to the Insured's address.

RENEWAL, TERMINATION, UPDATING OF PREMIUMS AND OTHER INFORMATION.

- Renewal. Unless otherwise established in the policy, the insurance contract is of annual duration, calculated from the date it enters into force, and it will be tacitly extended for successive periods of one year unless either of the parties opposes said extension by communicating this fact to the other party, giving 2 months' notice if SANITAS effects this notification and 1 month if it is the Policyholder. Under no circumstances will Sanitas oppose the extension if the insured is over 65 years old, provided that they have been insured with Sanitas for 5 years or more and without any missed payments, or if they are undergoing treatment for one of the serious diseases listed below, which was first diagnosed during the period the insured was included on the policy, (Active oncological processes; Tributary heart diseases of surgical or interventional treatment; Organ transplants; Complex orthopaedic surgery in evolution phase; Degenerative or demyelinating diseases of the nervous system; Acute kidney failure; Torpid chronic respiratory failure; Chronic hepatopathy (excluding those of alcohol origin); Acute Myocardial Infarction with heart failure; Macular degeneration.
- Termination of the contract (generally speaking, without prejudice to the provisions of statute and in the General and Particular Terms and Conditions of the policy).
 - SANITAS may terminate the policy:
 - In the event of any inaccuracy or withholding of information by the Policyholder when completing the health questionnaire for the Insured/s. Such termination shall take effect by means of a declaration addressed to the Policyholder within 1 month from when SANITAS becomes aware of the inaccuracy or withholding of information.
 - if, due to the fault of the Policyholder, the initial premium is not paid on maturity, unless SANITAS opts to require payment through enforcement. In the event of non-payment of subsequent premiums, instalment payments or co-payments, then art. 15 of Law 50/1980 and the Terms and Conditions of the policy shall apply.
 - The Policyholder may terminate the policy in the following cases by notifying SANITAS of this fact in writing:
 - On receipt, in due course, of a notification from SANITAS regarding a variation in the amount of the premiums payable for the next annual period. In such cases, the termination shall take effect from the conclusion of the annual period in course, provided that the Policyholder notifies SANITAS at least one month prior to the aforesaid date.
 - Whenever there is a change in the national medical staff of SANITAS, provided that this change affects at least 50% of those professionals making up its staff prior to the change.
- Objective risk factors to be considered in the rate of the premium to be applied in successive renewals of the policy: age of each Insured; geographical area for the provision of the services; variation in the costs of health-care services; frequency of the use of benefits; inclusion of technological medical innovations or new insured cover.
- The Policyholder is not entitled to have the policy reinstated. Optional ancillary guarantees offered in the policy, over and above the cover. Applicable premium tariffs.
- For healthcare policies the insured can access the professionals on the medical chart corresponding to the product purchased under the terms and conditions and with the limits set out in the general terms and conditions. For reimbursement products there will be no access limits, provided that the medical service is included in the cover.
- You can read the report about Sanitas' financial situation and solvency at: <http://corporativo.sanitas.es/>
- You can check the premiums applicable for every age range and the supplementary optional cover available at www.sanitas.es
- If the policy is taken out through a sales representative employed by Sanitas, the nature of their remuneration will comprise the salary agreed between Sanitas and the employee.

Direct debit mandate

Through the signature placed on the front of this form, the Policyholder and Debtor for the insurance premium authorizes Sanitas S.A. de Seguros to present a direct debit for the amount corresponding to the insurance premium for the policy referred to on this application form and any other amount payable by the Policyholder in connection with said policy. Furthermore, the bank indicated is authorized to effect the said debits against the Policyholder's account following the instructions received from Sanitas S.A. de Seguros.
